

A REPORT

George C. Wallace
Governor of Alabama

I had the pleasure of speaking to the Citizens' Council in Shreveport, La., Saturday night on the dangers that face America. I feel that some of the items covered in the speech are of importance to all Americans. I would like to share them with you. Through orders of officials of the Federal government, civil service employees are no longer assured that promotions will be based upon length and quality of service.

Preferential treatment is being given to a few people at the expense of the majority. The dangers face the workers of America today because of vote-hungry politicians who arbitrarily take a job from one man and give it to another merely to further their own political ambitions. This is discrimination in its rankest form.

The decision which this nation faces today is more far-reaching than integration or segregation.

In the State of Alabama and throughout the South, both races have progressed in an atmosphere of peace and harmony. We are working for more jobs for the people of our state - both black and white - in fact, more than 200 million dollars worth of new industry has come to Alabama this year. This is the answer to the problems of all the people of Alabama.

For almost a generation now, the individual citizens of this country has been entrained by so-called "plans" to cure, to modify, to change, and finally, to destroy, the greatest, most inspired system of Government ever wrought by man through the Divine Guidance of God.

We, as individual citizens, have stood before the tinsel banners of executive dictates, turned our backs on reality, forgotten the principles of our fathers, and allowed government to almost become our master.

This dangerous tendency, this dangerous course, must be changed immediately. I know of no better way to stop this trend than for a South-wide free election movement to be successful.

An awakening is at hand. Some members of Congress are finding out right now that meeting demands does not satisfy lawless agitators. It only leads to more demands. Their eyes are being opened, and they are beginning to see the light.

They are becoming aware that the majority of the American public does not want the type unconstitutional, anti-liberty legislation which the administration has proposed to the Congress.

I think the American people are going to make their wishes known to their representatives, and I believe that any office seekers who Region was 49,964. Of these books read, children checked out 27,891 and adults 22,133.

Chairman John D. Laster of Hartford will preside when the Cross Trails Regional Library Board meets at the headquarters library in Opp on Monday, August 26 at 2 p.m. Among the important items of business to be discussed is the planning of the budget for 1963-64. The library service is financially supported by the county commission courts and the counties of Coffee, Conecuh, Covington, Crenshaw, and others.

Let's not let mobsters run this country. Let's not be a Pontius Pilate and turn crucial decisions over to lawless Godless mobs.

The burden of maintaining responsible government rests on each of us. I gladly carry my portion of that burden, and I challenge you to assume your rightful share of that responsibility from this day forward.

I ask you to Stand Up For America.

Library News

275 new borrowers registered in libraries of the Cross Trails Library system during the month of July. These new patrons immediately became eligible to use all the resources of the region without charge.

The Enterprise Library led all libraries in the number of new registrations with 55. Andalusia and Geneva tied for second place with 40 each. Opp had 37 and Elba 31.

Reading was popular during the month of July as evidenced by circulation figures of the Cross Trails libraries. Nine of the libraries' twelve libraries had more books read in July than in June.

George Johnson, regional administrator, said that the increase could possibly be attributed to the fine summer reading program that many of the librarians had conducted. Showing increases in books used were the libraries of Elba, Enterprise, Florala, Opp, Andalusia, Brantley, Dozier, Hartford and Geneva.

Opp led all libraries with a circulation of 4,001. Enterprise was second with 3,995 and Geneva had 3,287.

The Coffee-Geneva Bookmobile had a circulation of 14,293 and the Conecuh-Covington-Crenshaw Bookmobile had 14,089. Total circulation for all libraries within the five-county Cross Trails

Trip Picture Pointers Offered

Planning to take lots of pictures during that upcoming vacation? If you are, don't wait until it's time to leave before getting ready. If your camera hasn't been used in a long time, it is going to need cleaning. That's a job you should take care of before you pack your bags.

You should also carefully reread the instructions which come with the camera.

You can't take good pictures without good film - yet it's surprising how many people don't pay much attention to the kind of film they buy. Whether you're going to take black and white shots or color slides, you'll need the right film. Select a reliable brand and stick to it.

It's a good idea to shoot a roll of film before you leave home. After it's processed, you can be sure if you know how to operate the camera properly.

The type shots you take on a vacation are important too. Plan your pictures or slides so that they'll tell a story of your trip. All it takes is a little thinking before a lot of annap. Remember to include part or all of the family in pictures of important landmarks. Include show-ows, too, to give the picture a feeling of depth. Keep in mind that pictures should have only one point of interest, not several. Simple pictures are usually the best. Of course, remember the basics - shoot with your back to the sun, frame your pictures in the viewfinder, hold the camera steady. And here's one very important point to remember: Don't leave the camera in the back seat or the trunk of the car where sunlight or heat can reach it. Either can ruin both your camera and film.

After you get back from the trip send the film to a reliable photo processing outfit for developing immediately.

Doctor Bancroft Cooper Elba's New General Practitioner

Doctor Cooper is the son of Mrs. Nell B. Cooper of Elba and the late Robert L. Cooper, Sr. His wife before their marriage was Doris Hildreth of Enterprise.

Doctor Cooper was born in Elba, December 26, 1921. He graduated from Elba High School and served in the Air Force as fighter pilot during World War II, received the Purple Heart, Air Medal with eight Oak Leaf Clusters and Distinguished Flying Cross. He entered the University of Alabama in 1945 and received the Bachelor of Science in 1949. He received the Master of Science Degree in 1950. He was instructor at the University of Alabama for two years and completed his academic requirements for degree of Doctor of Philosophy before entering the University of Alabama Medical School in 1953.

After graduating he entered at Saint Vincent's Hospital in Birmingham. He began practice in Amore and served on the medical staff at Greenlawn Hospital in Amore and Abertown Hospital in Florala. His second year there he served as president of Escambia Medical Society.

He was recalled to active duty October, 1961 for one year during the Berlin crisis and was on the medical staff at Martin Army Hospital at Fort Benning.

After being discharged he returned to Amore for one year before returning to his hometown to serve as general practitioner for this area. He is affiliated with Phi Chi Medical Fraternity, Selma and Troy.

Enterprise Man Claims Wife Committed Suicide

Royce Key, 41, was transferred to the county jail here from Enterprise Monday, and is being held in the investigation of his wife's death.

Sheriff H. C. Tillman said no charges had been placed against Key, a tavern employee in nearby Houston County.

His 26-year-old wife, Jackie, was pronounced dead on arrival at an Enterprise hospital Sunday night from a bullet that authorities said pierced her heart.

Enterprise Police Chief Henry Taylor said Key told him that his wife committed suicide.

Tillman said an autopsy was performed on the body Monday by a state toxicologist.

"We are still investigating, but I can't tell you anything more," said Tillman.

He said no bond had been set.

Mrs. Kennedy To Teach Music

Mrs. R.B. Kennedy, of Troy, will teach private piano lessons in the Elba High School this year, according to an announcement by the principal, Lamar Foley.

Mrs. Kennedy has taught piano for several years in Selma and Troy.

Terry Scott Devine Auto Crushes Elba Youth, Died Thursday

Little Terry Scott Devine, about 3 years of age, of Taylor Mill Road, Elba, was struck by an automobile Wednesday afternoon, August 21. The car was driven by Miss Perie Gene Prescott, daughter of William H. Prescott, Route 2, Elba.

The little boy was rushed to the Elba General Hospital and from there to St. Jude's in Montgomery where he passed away Thursday.

Airman Wayne Devine, a relative of Fairchild A.F.B., who was home on leave, suffered a broken leg while attempting to prevent the accident.

Survivors include the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willie D. Devine; three brothers, Billy, Andy and Dale; and sister, Cheryl Devine, all of Elba.

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon, August 24th at 3 o'clock, from the Fairview Baptist Church. Burial was in the church cemetery.

Elba Tigers Training For '63 Season

Elba Tigers are oiling under a hot summer sun with hopes that it pays off when the football season begins in September. A spirited group of candidates for the 1963 Elba High School football varsity squad have been going through daily workouts for the past week.

FARM FACTS

One out of every 13 persons in this country lives on a farm, according to a report issued by the U. S. Department of Agriculture and the Bureau of the Census.

Civic Improvement Committee Notes Store Improvement

The Elba Chamber of Commerce met last Tuesday night for the regular monthly meeting.

Subjects discussed were transportation, water, labor and raw materials. They also took a great deal of interest in the appearance of the business and residential sections of the town.

Mentioned was the fact that people who live in a town every day perhaps don't realize sometimes when the stores begin to get run down and ragged looking. Sometimes it takes an outsider to tell them. It can be expensive to a community not to keep up to date and progress along with the times.

The civic improvement committee noted that quite a lot of improving is going on at the present time which will be valuable to the city. They also made a recommendation to propose to the city that several streets in Elba be resurfaced.

The out-of-town speaker was Curtis Sumrall, industrial representative with the State Planning and Industrial Development Board and is also a recognized inventor with 14 patents to his credit.

Quarterback Club Slates First Meeting Tonight

A Quarterback Club meeting will be held tonight (Thursday, August 29) at the Elba High School.

Coach Hart, the new Tiger coach, is expected to be present.

This will be the Quarterback Club's first meeting of the new school year at Elba High School.

All members and others interested in the athletic program are invited to attend. Quarterback President, Sam Selver stated that tonight's meeting is most important as the club will get organized for the coming year and make plans for the projects to be carried out during the year.

Season Tickets

Season football tickets will go on sale Monday morning at the principal's office and at Supr. Taylor's office at Elba High School.

Everyone is urged to secure their season ticket early and help to get the season off to a record start. An excellent football season is expected this year under the coaching of Windall Hart who comes to Elba well recommended for his ability to whip together a well-trained squad.

Elba Theatre To Re-open This Week

The formal re-opening of the Elba Theatre is being announced this week. Cashier is Miss Linda Thomas, operator Bobby Edmondson and doorman John Lawless, all residents of Elba. Mrs. Hazel Faulkner is manager.

AMERICAN FLAG RAISED ON NEWLY ERRECTED POLE AT ELBA GENERAL HOSPITAL SUNDAY MORNING—This flag was raised in a most impressive ceremony Sunday morning on the newly erected pole placed on the hospital grounds by the American Legion of Culver Post No. 42, of Elba. Pulling the flag on the pole is Lloyd Fuller, at left, and Jessie Murphy, president Post Commander. The flag was raised from ground level to full mast, then lowered to half mast, where it remained until the setting of the sun to signify the price that was paid for freedom. The flag was presented to the hospital in honor of all deceased veterans. At left is Miss Sheila Smith, who sounded "Taps" on the bugle, after which the commander announced that the ceremony was completed. (Picture story inside.)

Nation's Flag Presented To Elba's Hospital In Impressive Ceremony

The American Legion, of Culver Post 42, Elba, had a very impressive flag-raising ceremony at the new Elba General Hospital last Sunday morning, August 25, at 9 o'clock.

Mrs. Jim Larkins of Elba presented the United States flag to the American Legion and said, "Commander Johnson, I present this flag of our nation to the American Legion in the love and name and respect of my deceased husband, to be represented to this hospital in the name and respect of all deceased veterans."

Commander Johnson said, "Mrs. Larkins, the American Legion is very sorry of your misfortune, but we promise you that this flag will ever fly in the same respect of which we received it." He then turned to Bill Pierce, director and administrator of the hospital and said, "Mr. Pierce, as you are the director of this hospital, I, speaking in behalf of the American Legion, present to you the nation's flag, which represents God and country, plenty of health and peace, and good will to all men. This flag will be raised by the American Legion from ground level to full mast, then lowered to half mast. It shall remain at half mast until the first setting sun to signify to all the price that was paid for freedom. It will then be raised from half mast to full mast, then lowered to am reach and relieved from its hilliard and folded properly to be placed in your hands for further instructions. Mr. Pierce, there (Continued inside.)

JAMES BROOKS, son of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Brooks, will go to Birmingham to enter University School of Nursing on September 9. James graduated from Elba High School in 1961. For the past year he has been working in a surgery in Gibson Hospital, Enterprise. He has passed all tests required for entrance to this school and has been fully accepted.

According to those under whose supervision James has worked at Gibson's, he has your hands for further instructions. Mr. Pierce, there (Continued inside.)

Milestone Reached In Veteran Care For Ailing-Aged

A milestone has been reached in the care of chronically ailing and aging veterans, according to Alabama Department of Veterans Affairs Director Walter C. Head Jr. Head announced that Veterans Affairs Administrator John S. Gleason has been authorized by President John Kennedy to activate and operate facilities and beds for 2,000 nursing home type patients within the VA medical system.

This is the first time in the history of veterans benefits administration has been taken for this group of veterans.

These beds will be in addition to the 125,000 presently authorized. They are designed for acute care, relieving the strain on the 125,000 hospital bed limit under which the VA has been operating.

The older veterans now comprise one-third of all VA hospital admissions, Head explained. These usually demand long term care.

At present, the average age of Alabama's 33,000 World War I veterans is 68.6. Head said that the number of over-65 veterans would be rapidly accelerated in the next 10 to 20 years.

State Forester J.M. Stauffer reported that several other alleged offenders had been indicted. Stauffer said C.P. Attaway, the Forestry Division's Fire Control Chief, had dispatched Charles H. Barnes to investigate several timber blazes "of questionable origin." Barnes, an attorney and registered forester, has recently secured at least twelve incendiary confessions.

Stauffer defined incendiary fires as those "intentionally set by a person on the property of another without authority to do so."

are more regulations that are required. The American Legion, as an organization, must explain that when this flag becomes old and no longer any good, it will be lowered and replaced by a new one.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon from the Chestnut Grove Methodist Church with the Reverend Earl Watson and the Reverend Harold DeVane officiating. Burial was in the church cemetery.

Survivors include the widow, Mrs. Catherine Tillman, 68; one son, H.D. Tillman, Coffee County Sheriff, and three daughters, Mrs. Elva Devane, of Elba, Mrs. Emma Helms, Columbus, Georgia, and Mrs. Palmer Bell, who resides in the Chestnut Grove Community.

Man Fined $9,000 For Setting Forest Fires

Thirty-one year old St. Clair County white man was recently fined $9,000 for unlawfully setting incendiary forest fires, according to an announcement made today by the State Department of Conservation.

The release stated that the convicted woods arsonist was tried by the St. Clair Grand Jury. He apparently set at least fifty fires.

The damage was estimated at $30,000 by State Forester J.M. Stauffer. Stauffer said these burned over timber tracts were strewn over a fifteen mile area. The confessed woods arsonist, originally given an eighteen months prison sentence that was later suspended, was placed on ten years probation.

Clayton D. Kelley, Alabama's Conservation Director, also revealed that three Citronelle youths had been convicted of setting five small fires in Mobile County. The boys - all between the ages of 17 and 20, were given fines that paid both the $150 damage and an undisclosed cost of suppressing the fires. The Court of General Sessions also required them to attend six monthly training sessions at the Forest Ranger's office. Failure to attend these indoctrination sessions, the court ruled, will bind the boys over to the Grand Jury on a felony charge.

Kelley interpreted the stiff fines and corrective measures as "apparently indicative of stern action ahead" for the incendiary forest fire offenses. The conservation official said most of the convictions stemmed from investigations of "incendiary-type fires" during the widespread outbreak of woodland blazes last March and April. He praised local landowners and law enforcement officers for their cooperation in the woods' arson investigations.

State Forester J.M. Stauffer reported that several other alleged offenders had been indicted. Stauffer said C.P. Attaway, the Forestry Division's Fire Control Chief, had dispatched Charles H. Barnes to investigate several timber blazes "of questionable origin." Barnes, an attorney and registered forester, has recently secured at least twelve incendiary confessions.

Stauffer defined incendiary fires as those "intentionally set by a person on the property of another without authority to do so."

Twenty-one of the missionaries will be speaking engagements during the day while here. Contact one of the members of the Directing Committee to reserve a speaker. Schools and civic clubs may wish to use those who have recently come from foreign fields.

"On To College Day" Scheduled For September 1

"On To College Day" is to be held Sunday, September 1, at the First Baptist Church, Elba. Special activities are being planned for the college students, high school seniors and juniors of the church.

There will be a breakfast at 8:15 A.M. in the church dining room. Mickey McCollough, chairman of the social committee, will be assisted by Paula Smith in preparation for this meal.

The high school and college colors and themes will be carried out at the breakfast and in the worship services.

Yvonne Bryan, chairman of the decorations is assisted by Bobby Dewberry, Henriette Dwyer, Terry Camley, Sammy Edmondson, and Wayne Jacobs. The worship committee is headed by Don Boswell and assisted by Claude DeVane, Cheryl Clark, Ella Kate Allen, and Janet Warr. The publicity committee is composed of Angie Smith, chairman, Jon Boswell, Barbara McDaniel, Spurlin, and Robert Russell.

The college students will be given special recognition, and a gift subscription certificate to the Christian Collegiate magazine, "The Baptist Student," will be presented to them.

With the help of college students, high school juniors and seniors, a colorful and active day is planned.

Twenty-one of the missionaries will be speaking engagements during the day while here. Contact one of the members of the Directing Committee to reserve a speaker. Schools and civic clubs may wish to use those who have recently come from foreign fields.

"On To College Day" Scheduled For September 1

"On To College Day" is to be held Sunday, September 1, at the First Baptist Church, Elba. Special activities are being planned for the college students, high school seniors and juniors of the church.

There will be a breakfast at 8:15 A.M. in the church dining room. Mickey McCollough, chairman of the social committee, will be assisted by Paula Smith in preparation for this meal.

The high school and college colors and themes will be carried out at the breakfast and in the worship services.

Yvonne Bryan, chairman of the decorations is assisted by Bobby Dewberry, Henriette Dwyer, Terry Camley, Sammy Edmondson, and Wayne Jacobs. The worship committee is headed by Don Boswell and assisted by Claude DeVane, Cheryl Clark, Ella Kate Allen, and Janet Warr. The publicity committee is composed of Angie Smith, chairman, Jon Boswell, Barbara McDaniel, Spurlin, and Robert Russell.

The college students will be given special recognition, and a gift subscription certificate to the Christian Collegiate magazine, "The Baptist Student," will be presented to them.

With the help of college students, high school juniors and seniors, a colorful and active day is planned.

What Kind Of Nut Is He?

He wants to run his own business.

He wants to select his own doctor.

He wants to make his own bargains.

He wants to select his own reading matter.

He wants to provide for his own old age.

He wants to make his own contracts.

He wants to select his own charities.

He wants to educate his children as he wishes.

He wants to make his own investments.

He wants to provide his own recreation.

He wants to compete freely in the market place.

He wants to grow by his own efforts.

He wants to profit from his own errors.

He wants to take part in the competition of ideas.

He wants to be a man of good will.

What kind of nut is he? He's an American who understands and believes in the Declaration of Independence, that's what kind.

Aren't you glad you are too? And don't you wonder why so many of our fellow Americans are trying so hard to destroy the kind of life that has made us the aim and envy of every other people on Earth?

The question is: What kind of nuts are they?

Revival To Begin At Westside

Revival Services will begin at the Westside Baptist Church of Elba on Sunday, September 1, and will continue through Sunday, September 8. Regular services will be held on both Sundays with Sunday School at 9:45 and Training Union at 6:30, worship services will be at 11:00 and 7:30. Daily services will be at 7:00 A.M. and 7:30 P.M. Monday through Saturday.

Reverend Richard E. Klepper, pastor of the Westside Baptist Church of Enterprise, will be doing the preaching. Roger Ireland, Minister of Music at Westside and a student at Troy State, will be in charge of the singing and the special music.

The pastor of the church, Reverend Welby Bozeman, would like to invite each one to attend these services.

Betty Roberts Hostess At Study Course

The young people of Westside Baptist Church met in the home of Betty Roberts Tuesday night. The last series of a study course was taught by Jeanine Bozeman.

This complete study course has helped the young people to see the real meaning of Training Union and its different phases.

A delicious spaghetti supper was served by the hostesses to the following:

Reverend Welby Bozeman, Angie Sikes, Judie Stewart, Bertie Hodge, and Sue Hudson.

YOUR Health

"Your Health" is presented by the American Association of the Diet of America.

Basic Seven Diet

The Basic Seven isn't a musical dance combo, it's a must diet combo. A combination of seven groups of food from which to choose the daily diet issued by the National Food Guide is being widely recommended.

The Basic Seven makes it simple for people to get a suitable daily intake without having to cram themselves with a lot of technical nutrition information. A person does need an appreciation of the benefits to be gained from wise food selection. He should know that protein in given amounts is essential to life, as also are minimum amounts of carbohydrate and fat.

The individual should choose something from each of The Basic Seven groups each day to maintain adequate nutrition. These groups are:

-Group 1: The leafy green and yellow vegetables are rich in vitamin A, also supplying riboflavin, iron, calcium and vitamin C.

-Group 2: The citrus fruits, supplying vitamin C.

-Group 3: Potatoes and other vegetables and fruits.

-Group 4: Milk and milk products.

-Group 5: Meat, poultry, fish, eggs, beans, and peas.

-Group 6: Bread, flour, and cereals.

-Group 7: Butter and fortified margarine.

People are nutrition conscious today, and many food fads are on the market to promote the sale of special health foods and health aids.

A well-balanced diet to include regular use of those foods listed in The Basic Seven combination offers a dependably healthful everyday nutrition.

A MATTER OF LUCK

Jim didn't catch any fish today. Now, on the way home, he can't help casting an envious eye at Tim's haul. It isn't that he begrudges Tim his fish. It's just that, in his heart, he can't help wish that he had been the lucky one.

This is natural, and Jim is young. He's just beginning to learn that you can't always be a winner, but he still finds losing pretty hard to take in stride.

Fortunately, Jim is being given the advantage of Christian training in church during this all-important period in a boy's life when a sense of values is being formed. He is learning lessons which only the Church can give him.

True, Jim is envying a very small item - a string of fish. But envy and greed come to all of us on a larger scale many times throughout life. To meet this challenge squarely, it takes years of self-discipline. That is why religious training can never begin too early.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL - ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and read your Bible daily.

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
Genesis 37:25-11	Proverbs 23:12-18	Mark 7:14-23	Luke 12:13-21	1 Corinthians 3:1-9	Ephesians 5:1-5	1 Peter 2:1-5

ATTEND THE CHURCH OF YOUR CHOICE SUNDAY

THROUGH THE KEYHOLE

BY MRS. ROBERT CANNON

THERE WAS NEVER A DULL MOMENT at Ima and Milton War's last week as daughter Sara played hostess to her cousins, Lynn and Lucy Phillips, of Montgomery, Twin sisters, and as cute as kittens, the two visitors quickly became part of the ten set and were never at a loss for entertainment. Page Rowe entertained informally after the fashion show for about twenty friends who found that the time spent singing folksongs passes rapidly. On Thursday the girls spent the day on the University Campus with Janet Warr and then Lucy and Lynn left for a visit in Louisville.

THE MOUNTAINS beckoned to Jean and Jack Vaughan who vacationed last week with sons Mark and Vann. Young Holly stayed with her grandmother Roberts while her parents were away. Prior to their leaving, the Vaughans had enjoyed seeing Martha and Teresa Tatum who visited Mrs. Dave Vaughan for a week. Raymond Tatum was here on business for the weekend and then they all returned to Delaware.

MONTGOMERY is not too far for a day's visit and Ruth Anderson took Kathy, Tina, Wilma and Windy to see their grandmother on last Thursday. Kathy stayed for a brief visit when the others returned home.

A SCENIC TRIP along the coastal states was enjoyed last week by Nancy and Marion Brunson of Enterprise. As soon as Nancy's schooldays were over, they headed the car for Gulf Shores, New Orleans and the again. large cities of Texas, reporting a wonderful time. They returned to Elba to see the Fox Bunnions, Sr. and to recently and we could hardly enjoy a visit with Jean and Fox, Jr., who with Jean, admiring her newly decorated room. Too elegant to be just completed a trip to called a "den" or "keeping Virginia and the Carolinas room." We'll think of this large room as a second parlor like our grandmothers did.

AND home from Virginia is Sara Priest Haire who summered in the Tidewater country. After completing her school term Sara Priest visited new friends before returning to Elba. It's nice to have her back.

AN INTERLUDE in a busy day gave us a chance to chat with "Miss Mary" Morrow and daughter-in-law Sara, who is always so pleasant and smiling. While the youngest grandchild cuddled close, Miss Mary told us that while Sue and Roland were honeymooning in New York City they saw Dot and Elvin Edgar walking down the street. Sue waved and called from the car and Billy Edgar recognized her first. The world is certainly a small place. Sue and Roland were here briefly last week before getting settled in their first home.

AFTER a summer abroad, seeing the cathedrals and art galleries, Virginia Lee Dorsey is at home. However, her leaves for her first job in a few weeks. She has been offered a position in Atlanta and will thoroughly enjoy that aristocratic city we know. Lorene Sawyer was in Atlanta for several days of shopping recently and agrees that it is a marvelous town.

OUR THOUGHTS have been with Robert Marsh who was until recently a patient at Jackson Hospital in Montgomery where he underwent eye surgery. Now that he is recuperating at home, Robert is learning that Elba is the nicest town in the world in which to be sick, as everyone has been to see him bearing gifts and greetings making the whole process quite pleasant.

ANOTHER who underwent surgery in Montgomery last week was Johnny Vaughan, son of Sally and Glen Vaughan and grandson of the Oscar Vaughans, Sr. Johnny had his tonsils removed and had rather bad time having to go back to the operating room the second time to have his throat cauterized but seems to be doing nicely now. And we know all the family is grateful to have this behind them.

"THANK YOU" seems inadequate to express my gratitude to those who have been concerned over my father who recently suffered a heart attack. All of us have deeply appreciated every kind gesture and will always remember you for them. Daddy is now at home in Troy and progressing nicely and we are happy once.

DEAR JANE: I sometimes feel that I am going to pieces. My nerves are in bad condition. I hate myself and fight depression, but to no avail. I really need help. MISERABLE.

DEAR MISERABLE: Have you seen a doctor? Our nerves are like pets: treat them fairly and they'll serve us; spoil them, and they'll rule us; abuse them, and they'll attack us. Your condition may be due to a lack of feeding the spirit. Try communing with God and attending divine worship. If there is no improvement, get under a doctor's care.

State Poultry Meetings Prob Air Flow Methods

A series of statewide poultry meetings are being held between Auburn University county agents and broiler industry personnel to develop better winter environment and sanitation practices.

"Much progress has been made in the breeding and feeding of poultry but not many advances have been taken in improving poultry house environment," reports Jim Hubbard, Auburn University poultry specialist. "At these meetings, demonstrations are being made to show how insulated ceilings and mechanized fan ventilation affect poultry in winter."

"Temperature variations are prevented and enough ventilation and air movement are provided," adds Hubbard. "Without this system, heat cost is too expensive. If the birds aren't kept warm enough, respiratory diseases are more severe. This remains in greater losses and lower egg production."

"Producers who already have this system are well pleased with the results," says Hubbard. "A mirror is often effective on a patterned wall because it reflects space. However, keep the frame simple."

Dear Jane

DEAR JANE: Why should a girl get so upset when you tell her you love her, and later you decide that you don't love her and you tell her so? Why does she have to make such a big deal out of the whole affair? — JERRY

DEAR JERRY: A girl's affections are not to be trifled with so lightly. A great deal depends upon how far you have led her along, and whether or not she really loves you. The average woman has greater difficulty than the average man in getting over a love affair.

DEAR JANE: My boy friend used to whisper sweet nothings to me, such as, "When I look into your face time stands still." Now that he doesn't want to see me anymore, he tells me that what he actually meant was, "Your face would stop a clock." Don't you think men are cruel to treat girls like this? — DEEPLY HURT

DEAR DEEPLY: The next time he comes along with that type of tripe, why don't you try your hand at stopping a clock by throwing one at him?

DEAR JANE: I am to be married soon, and my fiancée tells me that it is my duty to look after the minister's fee. This will be a large formal wedding. What is the acceptable fee? — RAY

DEAR RAY: When you plan a large, formal wedding you can be sure that someone will pay and pay—usually the bride's family, more than anyone. You pay the minister what you feel you are able, since rehearsals and much planning are necessary for such an affair, the fee usually ranges from $10 to $50.
